

Biography – Becky Hesson

Becky Hesson currently serves as the Director of General Services. Director Hesson has been with the agency since 1990. Born and raised in St. Augustine, she proudly claims her Menorcan heritage. She and her husband Drew raised their three children in St. Augustine and continue to share the wonderful quality of life we all enjoy in St. Johns County with their nine grandchildren.

EDUCATION:

- Graduate of St. Joseph's Academy
- Graduate of North Carolina State, Administrative Officers Management Program
- Graduate of Flagler College, BS in Public Administration

POSITIONS HELD WITHIN THE AGENCY:

- Administrative Clerk, April 1990 – October 1990
- Administrative Secretary, October 1990 – October 1994
- Administrative Assistant (Sergeant), October 1994 - September 1998
- HR/Finance Supervisor (Sergeant), September 1998 – March 2000
- Judicial Process Supervisor (Sergeant), March 2000 – October 2000
- Administrative Assistant (Sergeant), October 2000 – October 2001
- Fiscal/Budget Manager (Lieutenant), October 2001 – January 2005
- Sheriff's Executive Manager, January 2005 – April 2011
- Deputy Director, April 2011 – April 2013
- General Services Interim Director, April 2013 – September 2013
- Director of General Services, September 2013 - present